Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we approach the season of Lent, Paul's first letter to the Corinthians gives us a sneak peek of Easter, waiting for us on the other side: "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" Paul's conclusion, telling us to remain steadfast and devoted to the Lord's work, could serve as a Lenten motto. The reading from Sirach provides a series of adages regarding discipline of the tongue, and of our speech. Maybe not a bad Lenten practice to observe. Even Jesus in Luke's Gospel gets into the act, encouraging a cleansing of the heart ("A clean heart create for me, God" we will sing in Psalm 51 during Lent), so that from the goodness of our heart we will bring good into the world. Of course, these insights from Sirach, Paul, and Luke serve us quite well year-round. What we truly do "in the Lord" is never done in vain.

IS THIS ON THE TEST?

Today's reading from Sirach reminds us not to praise others before they speak, "for it is then that people are tested." Jesus, in Luke's Gospel, takes it a step further, reminding us that we are also known by the fruit borne in our lives. It doesn't take long to think of a person or group of people who speak beautiful, praiseworthy words, and yet their lives are unfruitful, or their lives outright contradict their speech. This is the class of people we call "hypocrites," and it's clear in all the Gospels that Jesus has no time for them. Our speech does test us, but the test is really to demonstrate that there is a connection between what we say and how we live. Expressed another way, this is the age-old discussion about faith and works. A truly deep-rooted faith will bear fruit in the works, in the actions of our lives. As happens so often in discipleship, we are dealing with the both/and, not either/or.

TALKING HEARTS

As disciples who follow Jesus, we believe that we are following God's very Word-made-Flesh. The theological term for this is In-carn-ation, the "in-flesh-made" second person of the Trinity. As followers of the Word, our words are truly important. Our hearts and mouths are wired together, as Jesus tells us today: "from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." This is yet another echo of the wisdom of Sirach: "Speech discloses the bent of a person's heart." Eventually, our words—and the other actions of our lives—will convey what is truly in our hearts. Perhaps the ultimate test of our discipleship is not merely our words, or even our actions, but on a deeper level the test is whether or not others will find in us God's word "in-flesh-made." Our mission is to be the Word-made-flesh, in the flesh again in our own place and time.

Initiation Programs and Adult Formation

Becoming Catholic

Is Christ calling you into the Catholic Church? What does the Catholic Church actually believe? What does it mean to be a disciple of Christ? If you are interested in exploring the answers to these questions, we'd like to help.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Youth & Children) process is one of conversion and spiritual formation for individuals interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. It is a time of prayer, reflection, study, faith sharing, discernment and participation in the life of the parish. This process is for those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized in another faith tradition, or those who were baptized Catholic and seek full initiation.

Awakening Faith

Have you been away from the active practice of your Catholic faith? Would you like to feel more connected with your childhood faith or learn more about it as an adult? Consider attending the Awakening Faith Series. We can assist you return to the active practice of your faith and welcome you back to the Lord's Table.

Adult Confirmation

Are you an active practicing Catholic adult who "missed" participating in the Sacrament of Confirmation? We invite you to enter the process of preparation at the parish.

To learn more, visit olmc.org or contact Christa at the parish office at extension 107 or email cblomstrom@olmc.org.

walking with purpose

Walking With Purpose – Meets on Wednesdays at 7pm

Are you stretched and would like a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with others? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God?

Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study for women that aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ by offering personal study and small group discussion that link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

Details at olmc.org or call the parish office to register.

Women's Bible Study – Meets Thursday mornings

Embark on a guided tour of the "Holy of Holies" of biblical theology in Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant, an eight-part Bible study presented by Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins! In this study, Catholics will be able to see, appreciate, and take hold of the riches God has given them in the New Covenant. Highlighting the critical distinctions between the Old and New Covenants, Hebrews will help Catholics get to know the generosity of the Father's heart in a deeper way than ever before. Don't wait to order your Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant Study Set (includes workbook and online video access) at ascensionpress.com.

Are you new to the Women's Bible Study? Contact Christa to register at the parish office or register at olmc.org.

That Man Is You – Meets Saturday mornings That Man Is You is an interactive, multimedia men's program focused on the development of authentic male leadership. That Man Is You! is successful at attracting large numbers of men, including younger men still actively parenting, and then transforming their spiritual lives. TMIY will meet on Saturday mornings at OLMC. Join the men of the parish for breakfast, a short video presentation and small group discussion designed especially for men. Registration information is available at olmc.org.

Small Groups: Faith and Fellowship – Life is better CONNECTED. Join a Small Group in 2022! Life is all about relationships. Small groups deepen our relationships with Christ and one another. The New Year is a great time to consider trying a small group! These small groups are a place to grow spiritually, find support and encouragement, face challenges together and share fellowship. The groups will discuss life and faith, reflect on God's Word together, seek God together and pray for and with one another. If you have not participated in the past, give it a try this season! Interested? Fill out the short interest form on our website at olmc.org or call the parish office.

Virtus Training at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

The Diocese of Richmond requires that all those who minister with children, youth or vulnerable adults complete the Virtus Safe Environment Training.

Pastoral Care

Nourish for Caregivers – 7:00pm, Thursday, March 3 at Saint Michael Hall

Nourish is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for a disabled child, an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Discover blessings in caring for another.

This month's topic: The Realities of Stress and Learning to Cope

Are you handling stress well? Find out! We'll use tools to measure actual levels and discuss practical ways to reduce it. The physical and emotional strains of caregiving can place you at higher risk for memory problems, heart disease and depression. Can faith, worry and stress co-exist? Be nourished. www.nourishforcaregivers.com

Circle of Hope – 10:00am Saturday, March 5 at Saint Michael Hall

Have you been touched in some way by cancer or by a chronic illness or condition?

You are invited to attend a Circle of Hope gathering to find faith-based support and encouragement. Circle of Hope is a community that prays together, shares stories with one another and finds hope in God together. Caretakers, survivors and those living with a diagnosis are all invited to attend our monthly gatherings.

Circle of Hope meets the first Saturday of most months, give us a call for more information.

Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 20 de febrero de 2022

Cada árbol se conoce por sus frutos. No se recogen higos de las zarzas, ni se cortan uvas de los espinos.

— Lucas 6:44

Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

A medida que nos acercamos al tiempo de Cuaresma, la primera carta de Pablo a los corintios nos ofrece un anticipo de la Pascua, que nos espera al otro lado: "¿Dónde, oh muerte, está tu victoria? ¿Dónde, oh muerte, está tu aguijón?" La conclusión de Pablo, diciéndonos que permanezcamos firmes y entregados a la obra del Señor, podría servir como lema de la Cuaresma. La lectura del libro del Eclesiástico ofrece una serie de adagios relativos a la disciplina de la lengua y de nuestro discurso. Tal vez no sea una mala práctica cuaresmal para observar. Incluso Jesús, en el Evangelio de Lucas, entra en acción, alentando la limpieza del corazón ("Oh Dios, crea en mí, un corazón limpio; esta frase la cantaremos en el salmo 51 durante la Cuaresma), para que desde la bondad de nuestro corazón traigamos el bien al mundo. Por supuesto, estas ideas del Eclesiástico, de Pablo y de Lucas nos sirven bastante bien durante todo el año. Lo que realmente hacemos "en el Señor" nunca se hace en vano.

¿ESTÁ ESTO EN LA PRUEBA?

La lectura de hoy del libro del Eclesiástico nos recuerda que no debemos alabar a los demás antes de que hablen, "porque entonces se pone a prueba a la gente". Jesús, en el Evangelio de Lucas, da un paso más, recordándonos que también se nos conoce por los frutos que da nuestra vida. No hace falta pensar en una persona o grupo de personas que hablan palabras hermosas y elogiosas, y sin embargo su vida no es fructífera, o su vida contradice abiertamente su discurso. Esta es la clase de personas que llamamos "hipócritas", y está claro en todos los Evangelios que Jesús no tiene tiempo para ellos. Nuestro discurso nos pone a prueba, pero la prueba consiste realmente en demostrar que hay una conexión entre lo que decimos y cómo vivimos. Expresado de otra manera, se trata de la vieja discusión sobre la fe y las obras. Una fe verdaderamente arraigada dará fruto en las obras, en las acciones de nuestra vida. Como sucede a menudo en el discipulado, estamos tratando con el ambos / y, no con uno o el otro.

CORAZONES HABLANTES

Como discípulos que siguen a Jesús, creemos que estamos siguiendo a la misma Palabra de Dios hecha carne. El término teológico para esto es Encarnación, la segunda persona de la Trinidad "hecha carne". Como seguidores de la Palabra, nuestras palabras son verdaderamente importantes. Nuestro corazón y nuestra boca están unidos, como nos dice Jesús hoy: "de la plenitud del corazón habla la boca". Este es otro eco de la sabiduría del libro del Eclesiástico: "La palabra revela la inclinación del corazón de una persona". Al final, nuestras palabras - y las demás acciones de nuestras vidas - transmitirán lo que realmente hay en nuestro corazón. Tal vez la prueba definitiva de nuestro discipulado no sean sólo nuestras palabras, ni siquiera nuestras acciones, sino que en un nivel más profundo la prueba es si los demás encontrarán en nosotros la palabra de Dios "hecha carne". Nuestra misión es ser la Palabra hecha carne, en la carne de nuevo en nuestro propio lugar y tiempo.

Lecturas de hoy: Eclo 27:4-7; Sal 92 (91):2-3, 13-14, 15-16; 1 Cor 15:54-58; Lc 6:39-45
