Fourth Sunday of Lent

Who knew that when Moses led the Israelites out of slavery it would mean forty years of wandering in the desert before they were able to enter the Promised Land? Many of us experience periods of wandering in our life. Perhaps we made some poor judgment calls in our younger days, or maybe as adult children we returned home to live because of struggling with substance abuse, or unemployment, or a divorce. Or maybe we fell away from Church for a bit. This is nothing new. The second reading calls us to be new creations in Christ, to put away our old selves, to be transformed; and in the Gospel we hear the beautiful story of the Prodigal Son. Each of these calls for us to move, and grow, and leave old ways behind.

TESTING THE BOUNDARIES

Some of the first words a two-year-old might say are "Do by self!" It is almost a rite of passage for teenagers to test their parents as much as they can. Every parent who ever lay awake in bed at night waiting to hear the sound of the child pulling the car into the garage or opening the door knows at least as much about praying vigils as any nun in a convent. This is a deep and earnest prayer, and the parents can barely breathe until their child comes home. Usually when we think of the story of the Prodigal Son, we think of the feeling of guilt the son had as he realized how much he had messed things up, or we feel the injustice that the older brother felt, because he wasn't the rebel child leaving the home.

WELCOME HOME

What we don't often remember in the story of the Prodigal Son is that God is there welcoming, urging us on. A few years ago there was a funeral for a young man who died of a drug overdose within days of coming out of a treatment center. Many of his young friends came but expected fire and brimstone, and to be told what a bad child that boy was. Instead, the priest preached about God loving this child so much that perhaps the only way God could protect him was to bring him home. That gentle image of God welcoming him with open arms soothed the broken hearts and unspoken questions that were on many minds. Not every situation is that drastic, but God is calling us home this Lent no matter what mistakes we've made, or how many times we have made them.

Today's Readings: Jos 5:9a, 10-12; Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7; 2 Cor 5:17-21; Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

RCIA: Journey toward Easter

Our Elect continue their journey toward Easter as we as a parish celebrate the scrutinies. These very special rites are celebrated on the middle three Sundays of Lent, at liturgies where the Elect are present. The Elect are those in our midst who are preparing for Baptism. Part of their journey to the font is that they have been received among us at the Rite of Acceptance, and they have been enrolled in the Book of the Elect at the Rite of Election.

Even if these rites are not celebrated at the liturgy we attend, it can be wonderful to reflect upon the journey these Elect are making during Lent, as an inspiration and source of renewal for us in our journey.

This is a beautiful way for the church community to provide support for those seeking Baptism or full communion with the Catholic Church – and to deepen our own commitment to our Catholic faith. Please continue to pray for our Elect and candidates during their Lenten journey and may their witness enrich our journey as well.

Adult Confirmation – Sessions begin in April 26

Adult Confirmation is for Catholic adults who have already received Baptism and First Holy Communion. The next Adult Confirmation session will begin on Tuesday, April 26, 2022.

To register, visit olmc.org or contact Christa at the parish office at extension 107 or email cbloomstrom@olmc.org.

Walking With Purpose – Meets on Wednesdays at 7pm

Are you stretched and would like a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with others? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God?

Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study for women that aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ by offering personal study and small group discussion that link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

Details at olmc.org or call the parish office to register.

Women's Bible Study – New 5 Week Study begins Thursday, April 28

Discover the Beauty, the Riches, and the Profound Meaning of the Mass!

In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Registration for NEW participants can be found at olmc.org or by calling the parish office.

Small Groups: Lent is a great time to join a small group! Life is all about relationships. Small groups deepen our relationships with Christ and one another. These small groups are a place to grow spiritually, find support and encouragement, face challenges together and share fellowship.

The groups will discuss life and faith, reflect on God's Word together, seek God together and pray for and with one another. If you have not participated in the past, give it a try this season! Interested? Fill out the short interest form on our website at olmc.org or call the parish office. "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Matthew 18:20

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

OLMC Men's Group – That Man is You! – Meets Saturday mornings

Our Lady of Mount Carmel invites all the men of the parish to consider being a part of That Man Is You. TMIY meets Saturday mornings in St. Michael Hall from 7:00 - 8:30 AM.

We gather weekly for fellowship, to watch a video, and engage in small group discussion. This year we are contemplating the quote by St. Irenaeus, "The Glory of God is a man fully alive".

If, like us, you are striving to be a man of God, one who embraces his vocation, whether as husband, father or single man, TMIY is for you. Lent is a perfect time to turn to the Lord and join other brothers who the Lord has gathered together to support and encourage each other.

If you desire to grow in holiness this Lent, we urge you to join us. So many have found that the Lord transforms this small sacrifice of time and sleep on a Saturday morning into a closer relationship with Him, and a greater love for those who have been entrusted to you! For more info call the parish office or register at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/TMIYolmc>

Pastoral Care

Lenten Challenge: How can you show up for others?

The call to almsgiving in Lent challenges us to show up to the suffering of others. We are called to look at the world through the heart of Christ and feel His compassion for the poor and suffering around us. As we enter this season of Lent, may we grow in selflessness and service to others.

Take some time to reflect upon the Corporal Works of Mercy and prayerfully consider how you can be Christ to another during this season of Lent. If you feel called to support the Pastoral Care Ministry, give us a call at the parish office or attend one of the upcoming trainings.

Nourish for Caregivers – 7:00pm. Thursday. April 7 at Saint Michael Hall

This month's topic: "Speak Up -- Overcoming Challenges of Advocacy"

Family caregivers protect the rights, dignity and life of their loved one. Yet, advocating for another is not always an easy or empowering task. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the Great Advocate, we can draw on the strength, wisdom and courage of our faith. Be nourished.

Circle of Hope – 10:00am Saturday, April 2 at Saint Michael Hall

Have you been touched in some way by cancer or by a chronic illness or condition?

You are invited to attend a Circle of Hope gathering to find faith-based support and encouragement. Circle of Hope is a community that prays together, shares stories with one another and finds hope in God together. Caretakers, survivors and those living with a diagnosis are all invited to attend our monthly gatherings.

Circle of Hope meets the first Saturday of most months, give us a call for more information.

Respite Ministry

Are you a caregiver who is seeking some respite time for yourself? The Respite Ministry provides parishioners who are full time caretakers of a home-bound loved one, a break of a few hours' time to use as he or she sees fit. During that time, a trained parish Respite Minister will provide safety, supervision, and companionship to the homebound family member.

To find out more about Nourish for Caregivers, Circle of Hope and/or the Respite Ministry, call Christa at the parish office ext. 107.

Virtus Training at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

The Diocese of Richmond requires that all those who minister with children, youth or vulnerable adults complete the Virtus Safe Environment Training. To register for the Virtus Training and to view additional training dates, please visit virtusonline.org.

Parish Library

YOU ARE ALLOWED - To tell a friend that you actually enjoyed reading one of our parish library's books this Lent.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

Baptism classes are the first Saturday of the month. For more information please contact Christy Barton 595-0385 ext. 131 or cbarton@olmc.org.

Vacation Bible School is June 20-24. Virtus trained volunteers are needed. If you are interested in volunteering please contact Christy Barton 595-0385 ext. 131 or cbarton@olmc.org.

RESCHEDULED Bunco Party & Silent Auction!

Let's get together and join your fellow parishioners for a night of fun and excitement at the Bunco Party & Silent Auction on Friday, April 29, in St. Michael Hall. The evening will begin at 7:00 with our Silent Auction, accompanied by complimentary hors d'oeuvres, wine, and beer. The guilds of the Ladies of Carmel are donating themed gift baskets and other wonderful items to the auction.

Bunco begins at 7:45. Never played Bunco before? Fear not! It's really easy, and our resident Bunco expert, Susan Adams, will teach us all how to play! Cash prizes will be awarded in several categories of winners (& even losers)! We will also have a 50/50 raffle that evening.

Tickets are $25 per person and are available in the Parish Office during the week and in the Commons the weekends of March 26/27 and April 23/24. Only 80 Tickets will be sold, so get yours soon!

LADIES OF CARMEL MEMBERSHIP

The Ladies of Carmel will be hosting a morning meet and greet at the school soon to form a guild composed of school moms. Stay tuned for further details!! All ladies of the parish are encouraged to join the Ladies of Carmel. Please contact PaulaKrew@gmail.com or LOC@OLMC.ORG for information.

The FOOD PANTRY Needs Your Weekly Support

The Food Pantry is stocked by your weekend donations and we need your support! If you are not in the habit of bringing a food item to Mass with you please consider starting this during the Lenten season. With the size of the parish, one item per family would be more than enough to stock the pantry.

Currently we need: Pancake Mix/Syrup, Crackers, Muffin Mixes (add water), Cake Mix/Frosting, Jelly, Pasta Salad

Easter Food Bag Distribution to the Aging

The children in the First Eucharist preparation program have put together the Easter Food Bags that are needed for those aging in the city of Newport News as well as families seeking assistance through our Outreach Office.

If you would like to deliver a bag (or two) to those who are homebound on our distribution list - please contact Tina (757-595-0385 ext. 118 or twandersee@olmc.org). Distribution will be at the convenience of you and your family starting March 28 through April 10th. You pick the day and time that works best for you and pick the bag(s) from Tina at the Outreach Office prior to delivery.

Your Assistance Is Needed!

40 Days for Life Spring Campaign

Have you ever been to the March for Life in Richmond or in Washington DC, come home, and found yourself wondering what next?

I'd like to invite you to prayerfully consider joining us for our Spring Campaign of 40 Days for Life, we begin praying on March 2nd. You will be joining one of the largest and most successful pro-life international prayer groups. To date over 20,000 precious little babies have been saved. Please join us by simply giving one hour each week to pray with us as we lift up in prayer all of the vulnerable mothers, who through tremendous difficulties in their lives, are now considering abortion.

Please register to pray with us at: www.40daysforlife.com/en/newportnews

New Partnership - NNP Domestic Violence Unit

Our Lady of Mt Carmel has started a new partnership with the NNP Domestic Violence Unit. Between 1/1/2021-1/31/2022, there were 10,389 domestic related calls for service (calls that were cancelled by communications were removed from this figure). Community based response is a component of NNP advocates in making sure that families and children are safe. The current need is for a family removed from a violent situation to be able to replace eye glasses for a legally blind child in the family, whose glasses were broken. If you would like to assist us with this need please consider a $25, $50 or $100 Visa gift card toward the purchasing of these glasses. Place card in an envelope to Tina - NNP and I will drop it off to headquarters in the coming week. Any additional cards we receive and don't use for this family will be kept in inventory to go towards the needs of other families.

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma

¿Quién iba a saber que, cuando Moisés sacó a los israelitas de la esclavitud, eso significaría cuarenta años de deambular por el desierto antes de poder entrar en la Tierra Prometida? Muchos de nosotros experimentamos periodos de alejamiento en nuestra vida. Tal vez tomamos algunas decisiones equivocadas en nuestros días de juventud, o tal vez como hijos adultos regresamos a casa a vivir debido a la lucha contra el abuso de sustancias, o el desempleo, o un divorcio. O tal vez nos alejamos de la Iglesia por un tiempo. Esto no es nada nuevo. La segunda lectura nos llama a ser nuevas creaciones en Cristo, a despojarnos de nuestro viejo yo, a ser transformados; y en el Evangelio escuchamos la hermosa historia del hijo pródigo. Cada una de ellas nos llama a movernos, a crecer y a dejar atrás las viejas costumbres.

PROBANDO LOS LÍMITES

Algunas de las primeras palabras que tal vez puede decir un niño de dos años son "¡lo hice!" Es casi un rito de paso para los adolescentes poner a prueba a sus padres todo lo que puedan. Todos los padres que alguna vez se han quedado despiertos en la cama por la noche esperando oír el sonido del hijo metiendo el coche en el garaje o abriendo la puerta, saben al menos tanto sobre las vigiliadas de oración como cualquier monja en un convento. Se trata de una oración profunda y sincera, y los padres apenas pueden respirar hasta que su hijo vuelva a casa. Normalmente, cuando pensamos en la historia del hijo pródigo, pensamos en el sentimiento de culpa que tuvo el hijo al darse cuenta de lo mucho que había estropeado las cosas, o sentimos la injusticia que sintió el hermano mayor, porque no era el hijo rebelde que se iba de casa.

BIENVENIDO A CASA

Lo que no solemos recordar en la historia del hijo pródigo es que Dios está ahí dando la bienvenida, instándonos a seguir adelante. Hace unos años hubo un funeral por un joven que murió de sobredosis a los pocos días de salir de un centro de tratamiento. Muchos de sus jóvenes amigos acudieron, pero esperaban fuego y azufre, y que les dijeran lo malo que era ese chico. En lugar de eso, el sacerdote predicó que Dios amaba tanto a ese niño que quizá la única forma de protegerlo era llevarlo a casa. Esa amable imagen de Dios recibéndolo con los brazos abiertos alivió los corazones rotos y las preguntas no formuladas que había en muchas mentes. No todas las situaciones son tan drásticas, pero Dios nos llama a casa en esta Cuaresma, sin importar los errores que hayamos cometido, o cuántas veces los hayamos cometido.

Lecturas de hoy: Jos 5:9a, 10-12; Sal 34 (33):2-3, 4-5, 6-7; 2 Cor 5:17-21; Lc 15:1-3, 11-32
