Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The "fulfilled in your hearing" statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week's Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God's mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he's not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and--selfishly--only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies "nope" through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our "take care of your own" reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn't the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day.

YOU'VE BEEN WARNED

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God's prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God's prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God's prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn't promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah's strength.

JESUS, SON OF JEREMIAH

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit's anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he's a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and "local boy" pivots to "who does he think he is?" You couldn't blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob's midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we've been warned. But we've also been assured of God's care.

Today's Readings: Jer 1:4-5, 17-19; Ps 71:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15-17; 1 Cor 12:31 -- 13:13 [13:4-13]; Lk 4:21-30

Ministry Opportunities

Ushers

Ushers are needed for all Sunday Masses. Ushers welcome people and assist with seating them. They also direct the Communion procession and help collect the weekly monetary offering. If you are able to serve as an usher, contact Heber Dunkle at hdunkle@olmc.org.

Adorers Needed for Eucharistic Adoration

Adorers are needed for Eucharistic Adoration. Adoration is held each Thursday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. If you are able to commit to a regular Thursday Holy Hour, please email adoration@olmc.org.

"Before you were born, I consecrated you." Do you think that you may be called by the Lord to serve Him as a priest? Call the Vocations Office, (804) 359-5661, to speak with Fr. Brian Capuano; or write to vocations@richmonddiocese.org.

Initiation Programs and Adult Formation

Becoming Catholic

Is Christ calling you into the Catholic Church? What does the Catholic Church actually believe? What does it mean to be a disciple of Christ? If you are interested in exploring the answers to these questions, we'd like to help.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Youth & Children) process is one of conversion and spiritual formation for individuals interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. It is a time of prayer, reflection, study, faith sharing, discernment and participation in the life of the parish. This process is for those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized in another faith tradition, or those who were baptized Catholic and seek full initiation.

Awakening Faith

Have you been away from the active practice of your Catholic faith? Would you like to feel more connected with your childhood faith or learn more about it as an adult? Consider attending the Awakening Faith Series. We can assist you return to the active practice of your faith and welcome you back to the Lord's Table.

Adult Confirmation

Are you an active practicing Catholic adult who "missed" participating in the Sacrament of Confirmation? We invite you to enter the process of preparation at the parish.

To learn more, visit olmc.org or contact Christa at the parish office at extension 107 or email cblomstrom@olmc.org.

Women's Bible Study – NEW 8 WEEK STUDY meets on Thursdays at 9am

Embark on a guided tour of the "Holy of Holies" of biblical theology in Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant, an eight-part Bible study presented by Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins! In this study, Catholics will be able to see, appreciate, and take hold of the riches God has given them in the New Covenant. Highlighting the critical distinctions between the Old and New Covenants, Hebrews will help Catholics get to know the generosity of the Father's heart in a deeper way than ever before. Don't wait to order your Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant Study Set (includes workbook and online video access) at ascensionpress.com.

Are you new to the Women's Bible Study? Contact Christa to register at the parish office or register at olmc.org.

That Man Is You – New Sessions begin on February 5! – That Man Is You is an interactive, multimedia men's program focused on the development of authentic male leadership. That Man Is You! is successful at attracting large numbers of men, including younger men still actively parenting, and then transforming their spiritual lives. TMIY will meet on Saturday mornings at OLMC. Join the men of the parish for breakfast, a short video presentation and small group discussion designed especially for men. Registration information is available at olmc.org.

Small Groups: Faith and Fellowship – Life is better CONNECTED. Join a Small Group in 2022! Life is all about relationships. Small groups deepen our relationships with Christ and one another. The New Year is a great time to consider trying a small group! These small groups are a place to grow spiritually, find support and encouragement, face challenges together and share fellowship. The groups will discuss life and faith, reflect on God's Word together, seek God together and pray for and with one another. If you have not participated in the past, give it a try this season! Interested? Fill out the short interest form on our website at olmc.org or call the parish office.

Pastoral Care

Nourish for Caregivers – 7:00pm, Thursday, FEBRUARY 3 at Saint Michael Hall

Nourish For Caregivers
Thrive. Empower. Advance.™

Nourish is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for a disabled child, an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers practical and emotional supports, shared experiences and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Discover blessings in caring for another.

This month's topic:
One is Enough!
Learning to Live One Day at a Time

God, who gave us life, nourishes us each day, providing for our every need. Fear, stress and worry happen when we lose sight of the grace and blessings in each moment and project too far forward. Our Catholic traditions allows us to focus our day on gratitude and hope.

Be nourished.

Circle of Hope – 10:00am Saturday, FEBRUARY 5 at Saint Michael Hall

Have you been touched in some way by cancer or by a chronic illness or condition?

You are invited to attend a Circle of Hope gathering to find faith-based support and encouragement. Circle of Hope is a community that prays together, shares stories with one another and finds hope in God together. Caretakers, survivors and those living with a diagnosis are all invited to attend our monthly gatherings.

Virtus Training at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

General Donations

From time to time Our Lady of Mt Carmel puts forth to our parish community special requests for a collection of household items or adult sized clothing. We collect those items for particular needs around the community; however, Our Lady of Mt Carmel does not have a way to distribute or store these items outside of those specific collection times. It is an effort to have to move these items to other area agencies each week. We are always collecting in support of our weekly ministries: non-perishable (in date) food, personal care items, cleaning supplies, clothing for children 0-24 mo (2T), baby supplies (ie. bibs, bottles, socks, burp cloths, receiving blankets, boppy's, etc.), maternity clothes. If you have other items you would like to see if we could use you are most welcome to contact Tina 757-595-0385 ext. 118.

The Outreach Office and Pregnancy Outreach Ministry

This week we welcomed new families and individuals into our Food Pantry processes. We are so grateful for the extra support and extra hands! Both the office of financial aid/food and pregnancy outreach have begun to see an increase in those seeking assistance. We could use extra help in a few more areas:

Interviewers for Outreach - Our office is very busy on Wednesday afternoons (12-2pm) and we could use a few more volunteers to interview (currently we are still doing this over the phone) those in need of assistance.

Pregnancy Outreach - This office could use some extra help in a variety of ways - all of which can be done at your convenience.

1. Sorting, folding and putting outfits together from the donations we receive. You can do this at home or in our office.
2. Putting together layettes for boys and girls per the guideline provided. This can be done in our office at your convenient time and day.
3. Boxing or bagging the items needed by those families in need - again at your convenience.

Please contact Tina for more information regarding any of these opportunities to serve.

Food Pantry: Crackers, Tuna/Chicken/Hamburger Helper, Boxed Potatoes (large size), Jelly

Personal Care: Toothbrushes, Deodorant - mens and womens

Thank you so very much for your continued support!

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 30 de enero de 2022

Ahora tenemos estas tres virtudes:
la fe, la esperanza, y el amor;
pero el amor es la mayor de las tres.

— 1 Corintios 13:13

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La afirmación "se ha cumplido al oírlo" de Jesús hoy es también la conclusión del Evangelio de la semana pasada, con las palabras de Isaías sobre la amplitud de la misericordia y la justicia de Dios en su centro. La respuesta de la multitud en la sinagoga es unánime: todos se asombran, pero todos se preguntan igualmente si no es simplemente el hijo de José, el humilde carpintero. Jesús les reprocha que parezcan pensar que debería ejercer su ministerio sólo a nivel local y, egoístamente, sólo para ellos. (Después de todo, ¡ellos saben de dónde viene!) Cuando Jesús responde esencialmente "no" mediante algunos proverbios e historias proféticas, toda la multitud se enfada por su implicación de que la realización en Jesús es para todos, no sólo para ellos. Cuando nuestro reflejo de "ocúpate de los tuyos" se pone en marcha, haríamos bien en recordar que esa no es la actitud de Jesús, ni la de su misión, que continuamos hasta hoy.

La apertura de la lectura seleccionada de Jeremías es seguramente una de las más reconfortantes de la Escritura. Imagínate. Dios me conoció antes de mi concepción corporal; Dios me dedicó antes de mi nacimiento o de cualquier rito de dedicación humana; ¡Dios me nombró profeta! Luego viene el uh-oh. A Jeremías se le advierte que su nombramiento como profeta traerá oposición, contra la cual los profetas de Dios deben levantarse. De alguna manera, el nombramiento como profeta de Dios parece que debería ser un poco más feliz, como el glamur que podríamos pensar que vendrá de tener amigos en las altas esferas. Sin embargo, al igual que hay muchas fuerzas en el mundo que se oponen a la voluntad y la bondad divinas, también se oponen a los profetas de Dios. Una segunda ronda de garantías llega a Jeremías, una promesa de que Dios estará con Jeremías para fortalecerlo. Dios no le promete una vida libre de turbulencias, pero sí promete ser la fuerza de Jeremías.

JESÚS, HIJO DE JEREMÍAS

En la sinagoga de Nazaret se produce un giro similar. Cuando Jesús habla de la unción del Espíritu sobre él, la unción descrita en Isaías, la multitud se asombra, y parece que incluso quiere atribuirse el mérito, ya que es un chico del pueblo. Entonces Jesús dice unas palabras de amor duro, y el "chico local" pivota a "¿quién se cree que es?" No se podría culpar a Jesús, en ese momento, si recordara las palabras de Jeremías, su antepasado profético. Aunque la multitud expulsó a Jesús de la ciudad y lo subió a una colina para arrojarlo a la muerte, aún no había llegado su hora. La fuerza y la protección que Dios promete a los profetas le llegó a Jesús ese día, cuando pasó por en medio de la multitud, ileso. Pasó en medio de ellos para continuar la obra para la que el Espíritu le había ungido. Para nosotros, que seguimos la herencia profética de Jesús en este día, hemos sido advertidos. Pero también se nos ha asegurado el cuidado de Dios.
