Sixth Sunday of Easter

Love. Songs and books, plays and artistic masterpieces have been created to convey the truth that love is real. As Christians, we know that love is of God. In laying down his life, Jesus pours out God's selfless, sacrificial, undying love. Jesus opens the door to a new relationship between God and humanity, that of friendship, of intimate closeness. Jesus calls us to show this same love for others, knowing that in doing so, we fulfill God's will. As the account of Peter, Cornelius, and all in his household attests, this great love of God cannot be contained by our preconceived notions of the way things are in the world.

THE CALL AND CAUSE OF LOVE

Love calls and causes us to do great things, more than we might believe we are capable of. While some are called to give their lives as martyrs, most of us find ourselves called to lay down our lives in smaller ways in the midst of everyday life. Parents lose sleep in the early moments of their baby's life, and again as their teens mature and gain independence. Adult children change their plans to care for aging parents. We hear the call of love as we become attentive and respond to the needs of the poor, lonely, sick, and vulnerable. Love causes us to turn our lives around, to strive to become more Christ-like in our words and actions. Peter followed this call of love when he entered the house of Cornelius, a Gentile. He was likely as astounded at the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as were the believers who accompanied him, yet love caused Peter to see beyond the accepted boundaries of religion and race, seeing instead evidence of the Lord's great love at work.

THE JOY-FILLED WAY OF LOVE

Following the Lord calls us to sacrifice for the sake of others, giving our attention, time, and resources in order to share Christ's care and compassion. Jesus shows us that giving of self, pouring ourselves out in love for another, is a joy-filled way of life. Joy is more than a feeling and is deeper than happiness. Joy comes with the assurance that Christ is with us when our lives mirror the life and way of our Master. Joy is a sense of fulfillment in knowing and sharing Christ's love. When we reach out in love, Christ's joy fills our hearts. Strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit, we find the grace to follow Jesus' command to love one another.

Initiation Programs and Adult Formation

Becoming Catholic –

RCIA: The Journey Continues

Is Christ calling you into the Catholic Church? What does the Catholic Church actually believe? What does it mean to be a disciple of Christ? If you are interested in exploring the answers to these questions, we'd like to help.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Youth & Children) is the process through which to explore the Catholic faith. A time to look within, build community relationships and inquire about the teachings of the Catholic Church. There is no commitment to join the Church, it is an opportunity to come and listen and learn where God might be leading you.

This process is for the unbaptized, those coming from other faith traditions and baptized Catholics who wish to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.

Awakening Faith

OLMC offers a series for non-practicing Catholics who are seeking answers to questions about returning to the Church. Do you know someone who has left the Church? Most of us do not have to look very far to find members of our family or friends who are no longer active in their faith. Please share your precious gift of faith and invite them to Come Home. They are waiting for the invitation to return!

Adult Confirmation: 6 sessions

Adults who have not received the Sacrament of Confirmation are invited to participate in this year's Adult Confirmation sessions. This is an opportunity for Catholic adults, not only to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit through the Sacrament of Confirmation, but to strengthen their relationship with Jesus during this five-week sacramental preparation.

These sessions prepare individuals to be confirmed at the Confirmation Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 23, 2021. If you are an active Catholic who has received the sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist but missed the Sacrament of Confirmation, this is for you!

That Man Is You

Our Lady of Mount Carmel offers a strong men's faith development program called That Man Is You. TMIY meets on Saturday mornings for spiritual formation, small group reflection, and fraternity. TMIY is available for any men of the parish over 18 years old.

The Food Pantry

The food pantry is in need of your continued weekend support!! We are still seeing families in need of assistance through our financial aid office as well as supporting those families coming through Pregnancy Outreach. If you are able to get in the habit of bringing just one item from our list each Sunday, that would make a huge difference to those families still suffering from the effects of the pandemic shutdown. Needed Items: Jelly, Chicken Helper, Canned Fruit, Pancake Mix/Syrup, Bags of Rice, Cereal, Boxes of Oatmeal, Canned Peas, Spam, Canned Pastas, Crackers Personal Care Items: Family size items of: Shampoo, Conditioner, Body Lotion, Deodorant (men and women), Soap, Toothpaste, Toothbrushes.

Thank you so very much for your continued support!

El amor. Se han hecho canciones y libros, obras de teatro y obras maestras de arte para transmitir la verdad de que el amor es real. Como cristianos sabemos que el amor es de Dios. Al entregar su vida, Jesús derrama el amor desinteresado, sacrificado e imperecedero de Dios. Jesús abre la puerta a una nueva relación entre Dios y la humanidad, la de la amistad, la de la cercanía íntima. Jesús nos llama a mostrar este mismo amor por los demás, sabiendo que, al hacerlo, cumplimos la voluntad de Dios. Como atestigua el relato de Pedro, Cornelio y todos los de su casa, este gran amor de Dios no puede ser incluido en nuestras nociones preconcebidas de cómo son las cosas en el mundo.

LA LLAMADA Y LA CAUSA DEL AMOR

El amor nos llama y nos hace hacer cosas grandes, más de las que nos creemos capaces. Mientras que algunos están llamados a dar su vida como mártires, la mayoría de nosotros nos encontramos llamados a dar nuestra vida en formas pequeñas en medio de la vida cotidiana. Los padres de familia pierden el sueño en los primeros momentos de la vida de su bebé, y una vez más cuando los adolescentes maduran y adquieren independencia. Los hijos adultos cambian sus planes para cuidar de sus padres ancianos. Escuchamos la llamada del amor cuando nos volvemos atentos y respondemos a las necesidades de los pobres, personas solas, enfermas y vulnerables. El amor nos lleva a dar un giro a nuestras vidas, a esforzarnos por parecernos más como Cristo en nuestras palabras y acciones. Pedro siguió esta llamada de amor cuando entró en la casa de Cornelio, un hombre que no era judío. Probablemente él y quienes lo acompañaban se quedaron tan sorprendido por la efusión del Espíritu Santo, pero el amor hizo que Pedro viera más allá de los límites aceptados de la religión y la raza, y en cambio viera la evidencia del gran amor del Señor.

EL CAMINO DEL AMOR LLENO DE ALEGRÍA

Seguir al Señor nos llama a sacrificarnos por el bien de los demás, dando nuestra atención, tiempo y recursos para compartir el cuidado y la compasión de Cristo. Jesús nos muestra que, darnos a nosotros mismos, derramándonos a nosotros mismos en el amor por los demás, es una forma de vida llena de alegría. La alegría es más que un sentimiento y es más profunda que la felicidad. La alegría viene con la seguridad de que Cristo está con nosotros cuando nuestras vidas reflejan la vida y el camino de nuestro Maestro. La alegría es una sensación de plenitud al conocer y compartir el amor de Cristo. Cuando nos acercamos con amor, la alegría de Cristo llena nuestros corazones. Fortalecidos por el poder del Espíritu Santo, encontramos la gracia de seguir el mandamiento de Jesús de amarnos unos a otros.
