Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For Pete's sake will you kids be quiet?" This question, no doubt, has passed the lips of numerous parents through the years. It's tempting to speculate as to who, exactly, was instructing Isaiah to be quiet. Neighbors? Fellow prophets? Family? No matter. Isaiah says firmly that for the sake of Jerusalem and Zion he will not be silent. Conversely, in the familiar passage in today's Gospel reading, Mary chides her son to break his silence, to save the wedding soon to run out of wine. Jesus responds with a prophetic action, one that signals the miraculous, bountiful joy flowing at the heavenly wedding feast. Prophetic words, prophetic deeds--both flow from a broken silence.

The Corinthians seem to have been Paul's problem children. His two letters to them are much longer than any of his other letters--two, three, or four times as long as some. It seems that if the early Christians at Corinth could misunderstand or do something wrong, they would. Fortunately for us, the two letters to the Corinthians, though they contain much didactic or instructional material, also provide some of Paul's most well-crafted and grace-filled writing. This is certainly true today, with Paul's litany of gifts that the Spirit bestows on the faithful, even to this day. Paul seeks to calm the squabbling that seems to have been going on, as the Corinthians tried to claim one gift or another as more important. All gifts come from the same Spirit, Paul reminds them; and the various gifts are given for the benefit of the community. When jealousy arises in our midst today, we can still turn to Paul's insights so we might stop being prideful, problem children.

WONDROUS CHILD

In the Gospel scene at Cana, we see Mary turning to her own child, Jesus. Perhaps she recalled the power of the Spirit that had flowed in her womb at his Incarnation, leading her to discern that surely he must have Spirit-given gifts that could help with the impending crisis at the wedding. As at her Annunciation, she may not have been completely certain, at first, exactly how this would come about, but in faith at Cana she turned to Jesus. In faith, her words, "do whatever he tells you," echoed her reply to Gabriel: "Let it be done to me as you say." In faith, she knows whatever words the Word will speak are bound to bring another inbreaking of the Spirit, another manifestation of God's reign. And she is right. Her wondrous child, John the Evangelist tells us, performed his first wonder there, and signaled the presence of the divine in the everyday.

Initiation Programs and Adult Formation

Becoming Catholic

Is Christ calling you into the Catholic Church? What does the Catholic Church actually believe? What does it mean to be a disciple of Christ? If you are interested in exploring the answers to these questions, we'd like to help.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Youth & Children) process is one of conversion and spiritual formation for individuals interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. It is a time of prayer, reflection, study, faith sharing, discernment and participation in the life of the parish. This process is for those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized in another faith tradition, or those who were baptized Catholic and seek full initiation.

Awakening Faith – NEW 6 WEEK SERIES begins February 1, 2022

Have you been away from the active practice of your Catholic faith? Would you like to feel more connected with your childhood faith or learn more about it as an adult? Consider attending the Awakening Faith Series. We can assist you return to the active practice of your faith and welcome you back to the Lord's Table.

Adult Confirmation

Are you an active practicing Catholic adult who "missed" participating in the Sacrament of Confirmation? We invite you to enter the process of preparation at the parish.

To learn more, visit olmc.org or contact Christa at the parish office at extension 107 or email cblomstrom@olmc.org.

Plugging Into the Power of Prayer – RSVP Now!

Are you considering new ways to be more intentional in your prayer life in the new year? This morning of reflection is for you! Join with other parents, ministry leaders and prayer warriors across the diocese for fellowship, discussion and reflection with a focus on prayer. Gain new ideas, insights, and perspectives on how to incorporate various forms of prayer into your daily routine. Breakfast will be served. Kindly RSVP to help us prepare.

Plugging Into the Power of Prayer

walking with purpose

Walking With Purpose – Meets on Wednesdays at 7pm

Are you stretched and would like a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with others? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God?

Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study for women that aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ by offering personal study and small group discussion that link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

Details at olmc.org or call the parish office to register.

Women's Bible Study – NEW 8 WEEK STUDY meets on Thursdays at 9am

Embark on a guided tour of the "Holy of Holies" of biblical theology in Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant, an eight-part Bible study presented by Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins! In this study, Catholics will be able to see, appreciate, and take hold of the riches God has given them in the New Covenant. Highlighting the critical distinctions between the Old and New Covenants, Hebrews will help Catholics get to know the generosity of the Father's heart in a deeper way than ever before. Don't wait to order your Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant Study Set (includes workbook and online video access) at ascensionpress.com.

Are you new to the Women's Bible Study? Contact Christa to register at the parish office or register at olmc.org.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

That Man Is You – That Man Is You is an interactive, multimedia men’s program focused on the development of authentic male leadership. That Man Is You! is successful at attracting large numbers of men, including younger men still actively parenting, and then transforming their spiritual lives. TMIY will meet on Saturday mornings at OLMC. Join the men of the parish for breakfast, a short video presentation and small group discussion designed especially for men. Registration information is available at olmc.org.

Small Groups: Faith and Fellowship – Life is better CONNECTED. Join a Small Group in 2022! Life is all about relationships. Small groups deepen our relationships with Christ and one another. The New Year is a great time to consider trying a small group! These small groups are a place to grow spiritually, find support and encouragement, face challenges together and share fellowship.

The groups will discuss life and faith, reflect on God’s Word together, seek God together and pray for and with one another. If you have not participated in the past, give it a try this season! Interested? Fill out the short interest form on our website at olmc.org or call the parish office.

Pastoral Care

Emmaus Journey: A Retreat for Grieving Parents

The Emmaus Journey is a spiritual retreat for parents whose child(ren) of any age have died by any cause, no matter how long ago. The Emmaus Journey offers a safe place where you can find peace, comfort and hope.

Nourish for Caregivers – 7:00pm, Thursday, FEBRUARY 3 at Saint Michael Hall

Do you care for a loved one? Be Nourished! Join our Nourish Group.

Nourish for Caregivers provides the tools and resources to build a caregiver’s resilience in a format rich with inspiration, practical information, spiritual nourishment... AND time for open sharing and interactive activities. Topics include “The Realities of Stress”, “Compassion Fatigue”, “Advocating for Your Loved One and Yourself”, “Facing End of Life”...and much more...with a focus on the spiritual side of caregiving. Leave less stressed, feel more confident and connected to others. Enrich your prayer life. Come! Be Nourished!

Circle of Hope – 10:00am Saturday, FEBRUARY 5 at Saint Michael Hall

Have you been touched in some way by cancer or by a chronic illness or condition?

You are invited to attend a Circle of Hope gathering to find faith-based support and encouragement. Circle of Hope is a community that prays together, shares stories with one another and finds hope in God together. Caretakers, survivors and those living with a diagnosis are all invited to attend our monthly gatherings.

Respite Ministry

Are you a caregiver who is seeking some respite time for yourself? The Respite Ministry provides parishioners who are full time caretakers of a home-bound loved one, a break of a few hours’ time to use as he or she sees fit. During that time, a trained parish Respite Minister will provide safety, supervision, and companionship to the homebound family member.

To find out more about Nourish for Caregivers, Circle of Hope and/or the Respite Ministry, call Christa at the parish office ext. 107.

Special Thanks and Gratitude

A very sincere and special thanks to Bishop Knestout and the Respect Life Grant Committee for their recent grant award in the amount of $12,000 to help aid us in our ministry to those families choosing life. Pregnancy Outreach for Parents, Infants and children assists over 600 families with children annually in need of items to welcome their new baby. We continue to walk with families monthly until the child reaches the age of 2 years old.

Thank you so much for such generosity!

Thank You Note From Someone You Served

Thank you for your loving heart and your helping hands.

PORT Winter Shelter 2022

Thank you so much for all the support to serve the PORT Winter Shelter off property! We have had such a great opportunity to get to know our brothers and sisters who lead at the local Churches and graciously aid them in places they lack - most especially with our large teams and ability to provide meals and resources. At the same time we still get to be such a refreshing fount of love to those suffering homelessness, as we minister to the guests.

All that said... We need your help at the upcoming February PORT Dates.

Ministerios de Niños

El retiro para padres de niños que recibirán su Primera Eucaristía será el domingo 23 de enero en Saint Michael Hall y en la Iglesia de 11 a. M. A 1:30 p. M. La formación en la fe continúa, no hay taller de Primera Eucaristía en enero.

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Por el amor de Dios, ¿se pueden callar?" Esta pregunta, sin duda, ha pasado por los labios de numerosos padres a lo largo de los años. Resulta tentador especular sobre quién exactamente, le ordenaba a Isaías que se callara. ¿Los vecinos? ¿Compañeros profetas? ¿La familia? No importa. Isaías dice con firmeza que, por el bien de Jerusalén y Sion, no se callará. A la inversa, en el conocido pasaje de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, María reprende a su hijo para que rompa su silencio, para salvar la boda que pronto se va a quedar sin vino. Jesús responde con una acción profética, que señala la alegría milagrosa y abundante que fluye en el banquete de bodas celestial. Palabras proféticas, hechos proféticos: ambos surgen de un silencio roto.

Los corintios parecen haber sido los hijos problemáticos de Pablo. Sus dos cartas a ellos son mucho más largas que cualquiera de sus otras cartas - dos, tres o cuatro veces más largas que algunas. Parece que, si los primeros cristianos de Corinto podían malinterpretar o hacer algo mal, lo hacían. Afortunadamente para nosotros, las dos cartas a los Corintios, aunque contienen mucho material didáctico o instructivo, también proporcionan algunos de los escritos más bien elaborados y llenos de gracia de Pablo. Esto es ciertamente cierto hoy en día, con a letanía de dones que el Espíritu concede a los fieles, incluso hasta el día de hoy. Pablo trata de calmar la disputa que parece haber existido, ya que los corintios trataban de reclamar un don u otro como más importante. Todos los dones proceden del mismo Espíritu, les recuerda Pablo, y los distintos dones se conceden en beneficio de la comunidad. Cuando los celos surgen en nuestro entorno, podemos recurrir a las ideas de Pablo para dejar de ser niños or gullosos y problemáticos.

EL NIÑO O DESEADO

En la escena evangélica de Caná, vemos a María dirigirse a su propio hijo, Jesús. Tal vez recordaba la fuerza del Espíritu que había fluido en su vientre en el momento de su encarnación, lo que la llevó a discernir que seguramente él debía tener dones otorgados por el Espíritu que podrían ayudar en la inminente crisis de la boda. Al igual que en la Anunciación, es posible que al principio no estuviera completamente segura de cómo se produciría esto, pero en Caná se dirigió a Jesús con fe. Con fe, sus palabras, "hagan lo que él les diga", se hicieron eco de su respuesta a Gabriel: "Hágase en mí lo que tú digas". En la fe, ella sabe que cualquier palabra que la Palabra diga está destinada a traer otra irrupción del Espíritu, otra manifestación del reino de Dios. Y tiene razón. Su maravilloso hijo, según nos cuenta el evangelista Juan, realizó allí su primer prodigio y señaló la presencia de lo divino en lo cotidiano.
